I AM THE SPIRIT OF L.H.S.

I live in the heart and mind of each student of Luray High. With the students I participate in every phase of school life. I sit in the classroom, walk in the halls, go to assemblies, dances, football games.

I am a part of the school, and a part of every graduate, every teacher, every student who has been at Luray High. I bring back memories to each of them: memories of tests, pep rallies, graduation, the Senior Prom.

And through this book, the 1964 Highland, I hope in words and pictures, to help you to cherish your memory of your days at L. H. S.

During the three years in which he has been at Luray High, our principal has provided us with the leadership necessary to make our school one of which we can be proud. As first principal of the separate high school, he has given us help and guidance in adjusting to our new surroundings. Under his administration the curriculum has been enlarged and there has been greater participation in the activities. With gratitude and respect, we dedicate the 1964 Highland to Mr. James W. Milton.

SCHOOL LIFE

I am the Spirit of Activity. I am wherever people are doing things. Under my guidance, students of L. H. S. blend work and play into an active life that will make them better citizens tomorrow.

WE STUDY . . .

to profit from the knowledge of others.

to improve our style of writing. Charles, Janet, Cindy, Dickie, Carolyn, and Bobby participate in group study on composition in Miss Bohannon's English class.

to gain information from our own experiences. Lynwood explains a chemistry experiment to Beth, Faye, and Cookie.

to learn the business of agriculture through farm management in vo-cational agriculture classes. Mr. Saufley explains a feeding system to David, Harry, Buddy, and Bill.

to reason in three dimensions. Bill and Charles examine properties of spheres.

to develop our ability to play musical instruments. Mr. Brown explains a difficult part to Dickie, Chuckie, Pete, and Stewart.

WE CELEBRATE HOMECOMING.

JANE LONG Homecoming Queen

Ronnie Keyser, football captain, crowns Homecoming Queen Jane Long as Nancie Buracker, Senior Princess, looks on. The Homecoming Game was highlighted by the crowning of Jane Long as Homecoming Queen of 1963. The ceremonies took place at half-time during the game between Warren County High School and Luray High School on October 18.

After a fine performance by the Luray High School Band at half-time, the Queen and her court arrived on the field on a beautiful float. Ronnie Keyser, captain of the Bulldogs, had the honor of crowning the Queen and presenting each princess with a bouquet.

The following night, the Queen and her court reigned over the Homecoming Dance held in the L. H. S. gymnasium.

WE HONOR . . .

Louise Janney, recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. She was chosen by the Senior Class and faculty on the basis of her patriotism, dependability, service and leadership.

Louise also brought honor to L.H.S. with her essay on "Foundations of American Greatness", in a contest sponsored by the Farm Bureau. After winning on the local and district levels, Louise received the top award in the state-wide competition.

Phil Schaffner, winner of the Page County Science Fair, who went on to become top exhibitor in the Shenandoah Regional Science Fair at Madison College. For his outstanding exhibit on an "Electronically Simulated Neuron," Phil received a gold trophy cup, a ten-day cruise with the U.S. Navy, and an all-expense-paid trip to Albuquerque, New Mexico, to compete with the top science entries from all over the United States. His science advisor, James Lehman, accompanied Phil on his trip to New Mexico.

members of the All-District Band chosen from Luray High: Debbie Emerson, Leah Dinges, Judy Atkins, Patsy Woodward, Fred Hackley, John Hudson, Scott Walker, Stewart Farrar, Dickie Sedwick, Donnie Vogt. Scott, Stewart, Donnie, Fred, and Leah were selected to play in the concert band.

All-District Chorus members from L.H.S.: Sherry Jo Campbell Barbara Black, and Susan Varner. The girls attended the Chorus at Waynesboro on February 14, 15, and 16.

I am the Spirit of the Future. I alone know what lies ahead for graduates of Luray High, who will soon go their separate ways. I am the guiding force that leads them on to new heights, and that opens the door to greater opportunities.

OFFICERS

President, David Crist; Vice-President, Eldon Gochenour; Secretary, Jane Long; Treasurer, Charles Bauserman; Reporter, Michael Noblette.

The Luray High School Class of 1964, first to graduate under the new five-year program, will remember their high school days long after they have left L.H.S. and their class-mates behind. As Seniors and as graduates of Luray High, they will endeavor to live up to the class motto: "Seek the Heights!" Class colors are lavender and white, and the white rose is the class flower. Mr. Pappas and Mr. Crank serve as Senior Class sponsors.

SENIOR MEMORIES

Senior boys become young tots on "dress-up" day.

Seniors goof-off in the halls before school.

Members of the senior play committee work on selection of a play for the Class of '64. IN CASE OF MURDER by Frank Wattron was selected.

Arrival of the HIGHLAND causes excitement for the Seniors and hard work for the Yearbook Staff.

Memories of the Prom will remain with all Seniors long after graduation.

LOUISE JANNEY

WHO'S WHO

These students have been selected by the Senior Class as outstanding members of the Class of 1964. They were chosen not only because of popularity, but on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and cooperation in curricular and extra-curricular activities.

GRADUATION

Commencement exercises are the climax of our five years at Luray High.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,

Hail to thee, O Luray High.

With glory, laud, and honor,

The Maroon and White fly high.

If thy noble sons and daughters,

All with joy and rapture may,

From our hearts and souls forever,

We say Hail to thee, Luray!

UNDERCLASSMEN

I am the Spirit of Achievement. The Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen, and Eighth Graders of L. H. S. know me as the desire to be on the honor roll, to make the team, to participate in class activities. I lead them up the ladder of high school to the ultimate goal of graduation.

OTHER SCHOOL PERSONNEL

Mr. Bradley and Mr. Frazier keep Luray High clean for our students and teachers.

Through all kinds of weather our bus drivers manage to assure safe arrival of students before first bell:

Leroy Printz, Frankie Keyser, Mark Sours, Dan Waters, David Moyer, Mr. Rickard, Mr. Yates, Mr. Spitler, Mr. Buracker, Mr. Spitler.

Mrs. Smith, Miss Kibler, and Mrs. Good prepare turkeys for the Thanksgiving meal.

CLUBS

I am the Spirit of Organization. I am the force that brings together young people with common interests and gives them a goal for which to work. My influence is felt by all who want to make their school years more worthwhile and meaningful.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

First row: David Crist; Elden Gochenour; David Meyer; Nancy Keyser; Scotty Walker; James Triplett; Carolyn Schlabach; Arlene Sours; Elta Rae Griffith. Second row: Mrs. Broyles, Sponsor; Fay Snyder; Carol Sue Robinson; Suellen Hudson; Debbie Long; Barbara Griffith; Gay Atkins; Karen McAleer; Judy Black; Randy Stokes. Third row: Garland Gochenour; Dickie Sedwick; Chuckie Collins; Charles Bauserman; Page Miller; Johnny Woodard; Phil Shaffner; Ronald Good; Michael Noblette.

Our S. C. A. is an organization of which we should be very proud. Luray High School has received the S.C.A. Achievement plaque for the past nine years. State S.C.A. requirements to obtain this award are holding assemblies, reporting to the State S.C.A. on objectives, Committees and activities, and sending delegates to district and state conventions. These requirements are fulfilled each year by students at Luray High School.

The S.C.A. is in charge of the many bulletin boards throughout the school. Eldon and Wayne prepare a colorful and informative display for American Education week.

S.C.A. Student-Teacher Relations Committee enjoys playing host to teachers.

S.C. A. delegates leave for a district meeting.

THE HIGHLAND

Bill and Frankie measure pictures and count inches in order to have balanced pages for the yearbook.

Mike points out an amusing mistake in copy to Nancie.

To many students, the pop of the flash bulb, the click of the camera, and the rushing around on picture day are the only signs of the activity of its yearbook staff. But taking pictures is just a part of the job of staff members. They work every sixth period and many extra hours planning pictures, designing layouts, compiling data, and writing copy. This edition of the Highland is the final result.

Cathy and Wade identify classmates and stamp pictures.

THE TATLER

To draw attention to interesting personalities and events through informative and accurate articles is the chief aim of the Tatler. Another basic purpose of the Tatler is to train staff members in the fundamentals of journalism and in the mechanics involved in the production of a newspaper.

The Tatler goes to press! Wayne Stoneberger helps Louise Janney, Editor, to prepare the latest edition.

It's almost ready! Ellen, Janet, and Cindy staple pages.

SCHOOL BAND

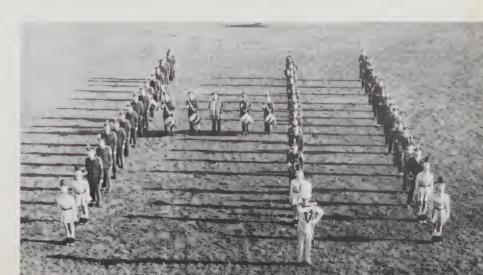

Mr. G. Ronald Brown, Director

Marching band demonstrates its greeting for visitors at football games.

The Luray High Band presents two concerts annually featuring a variety of good quality music. Bandsmen each year represent Luray High at the All-District Band. The Band participates in the District V. Band Festival at which it has received one excellent and three superior ratings in the previous four years. Other activities include giving outdoor concerts, marching for football games and many other local activities. The band has attained much recognition and secured a high standing through the fine spirit and dedication of the bandsmen.

CONTINENTALS

The Continentals were organized in the spring of 1961. This group plays for many local dances and civic club meetings. The Continentals also play for dances at other schools. A smaller group within this dance orchestra called the "Continentals Combo" has been asked to play dinner music for many clubs and organizations. When the groups are financially awarded for their services, they have used the money to defray expenses and for special projects like a recording microphone, and a piano for the Ball Room.

The Continentals play for the Graduation Dance at the Mimslyn Hotel.

COMBO: Susan Varner, Ann Harvey, Donnie Vogt.

CHORUS

The Luray High Chorus was reorganized again this year. The group meets after school as an extracurricular activity. The chorus presents one concert in conjunction with the Continentals. They also help provide music for school programs such as at Christmas and commencement.

First row: J. Nickerson, B. Cullers, B. Burner, R. Rothgeb, A. Clark, K. McAleer, S. Spitler, A. Arrington, A. Atkins, B. Black, N. Noblette. Second row: P. Thomas, A. Harvey, C. Sours, L. Dinges, C. Projects for 1963-4 have been outstanding. During the Saturnalia the Latin I students presented a puppet show with Roman puppets clad in authentic costume by the puppeteers.

In February a sumptuous Roman banquet was held at the Mimslyn Hotel under the skilled leadership of Consul Cathy Koster and her committee chairmen: Bill Joyner, Fred Hackley, Ellen Mauck, Deborah Long, and John Hudson.

It is hoped that classical honors will be forthcoming after the state-wide Latin Tournament at Madison College.

Slaves on initiation day.

SPANISH

For its monthly program, the Spanish Club presents original skits, songs, dances, and discussions which portray life in Spanish-speaking countries.

The initiation of new members who dress in peasant style and perform pre-arranged tasks for the aristocratic upper-classmen is an event enjoyed by the whole school.

The club holds an annual dinner with the Junior Woman's Club serving Spanish-type food and presenting a varied program, including group singing of Spanish song.

Janet, Charles, and Dwight prepare a bull-fight scene for the bulletin board.

A blindfolded club member tries to break the candyfilled pinata following the Spanish Club dinner.

Spanish I members dress as peons and sing to upperclássmen on initiation day.

Bill Ellen, Fred, and Cathy Cathy perform a "Ben Casey" skit in Spanish.

BUSINESS CLUB

The Business Club began its year in September at which time the new members were initiated both formally and informally. The Program Committee presented programs at each meeting concerning entrance into the business world—What jobs are available, what business schools have to offer, how to apply for a job, how to dress for work in an office, and what duties a good secretary is expected to carry out. Special activities were an assembly program in November, and a Beatnik Dance in January to help raise money for an electric typewriter.

COACHES AND MANAGERS

Coaches: Mr. Mitchell Pappas and Mr. Robert Crews.

The Bulldogs, under the fine coaching of Mr. Crews and Mr. Pappas, showed a great deal of fighting spirit and sportsmanship throughout the entire football season.

A great deal of credit also goes to our managers, who are important to the functioning of the team.

Managers: Wade Campbell, Randy Stokes, Steve Sours, and Garland Gochenour.
